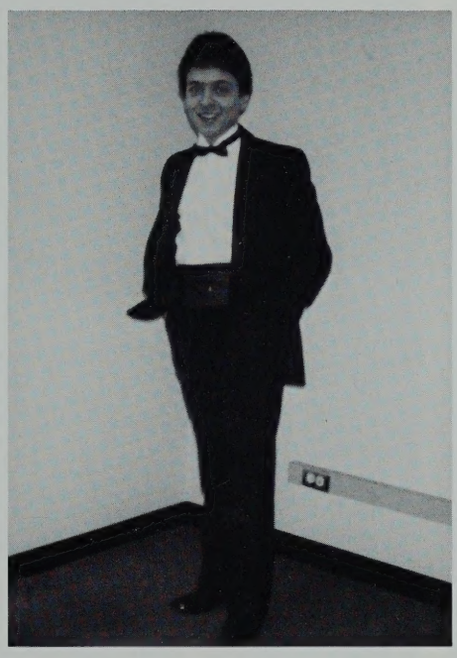
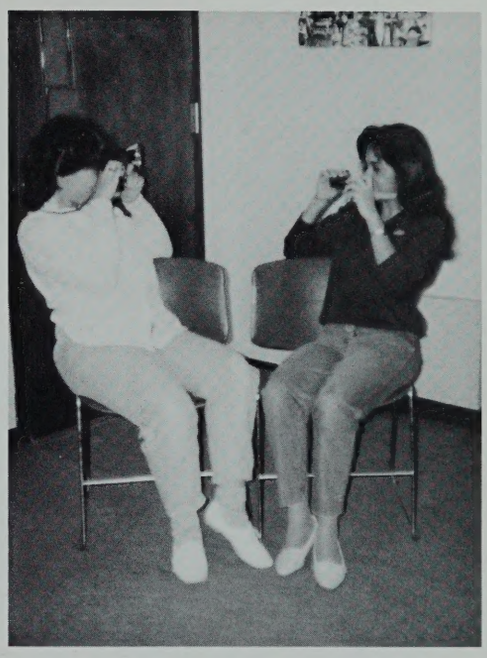
CRIMSON LOG SUPPLEMENT

A NIGHT OF GLAMOUR

The glamour and high fashion of the Class of '86 came out in full force on June 2, 1986 at the Venus de Milo. As the limousines pulled up, the calliope of colors pouring from the chauffeur-driven autos was spectacular. The receiving line presented a few surprises of its own as everyone carefully watched the couples being presented. After the walk through the trellis the dancing began and the fun extended to all.

PROM PROMOTIONAL DAYS





For the first time the Crimson Log staff sponsored prom promotional days. At this time coupons were distributed from tuxedo firms, bridal salons, florists, hairdressers, jewelers and shoe shops. To add a special flair, the members of the class dressed in the appropriate attire, depending on the coupons being given by that person. It was great fun — especially for the girls in rollers!

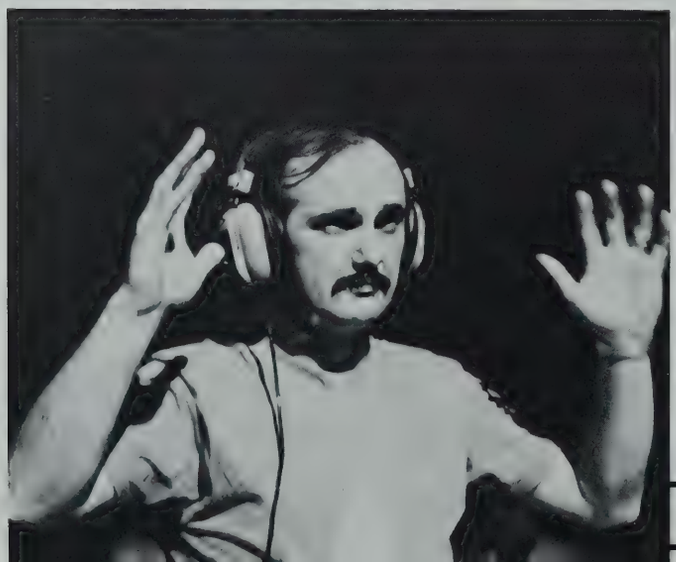
SPRING SPORTS

Getting Ready for . . .

Backstage is an extremely busy place during a dress rehearsal and the excitement runs rampart. Adding professional make-up to expert hair-styling gives the aspect of a Broadway play right here in our own school. Mr. Charbonneau and Mr. Marchand continue to give outstanding direction in the manner of seasoned directors of many years of professional work. These things coupled with the fine musical talents of Mr. Vasconcelles and Ms. Lawrence and the choreography of Ms. McDonald finish off a fine "cast" of people responsible for excellent productions.



THE SOUND OF MUSIC

The auditorium came alive with the sound of music in the spring with outstanding performances by departing seniors Paul Foucart and Melody Plummer. Also singing farewell in fine style was Rhonda Matson. Newcomer Yael Alkalay was a smash! Marc LeBlanc, Alyssa Lynch, Andy Garrett, Danny Weaver and Victor Silveira gave the senior class something of which to be proud with strong supporting roles. Once again the Drama Club was a hit.

"Having a Good Time!"

The Senior Banquet, held at White's on May 8, 1986 was a fun-filled evening with good friends, good music and good entertainment. The surprise act of Paul and Ann certainly brought laughter as they "pranced" across the floor. The baby "crew" once again were novel with Manny making as cute a baby as he did female WAC. Both Roxanne and Melody sang with finesse, but Roxanne's partner stole the thunder!

When the class comes together again at their reunion, an encore performance will be required of Ms. Leal who made an excellent Speedy Gonzalez!

EXIT

A FOND FAREWELL TO FRIENDS

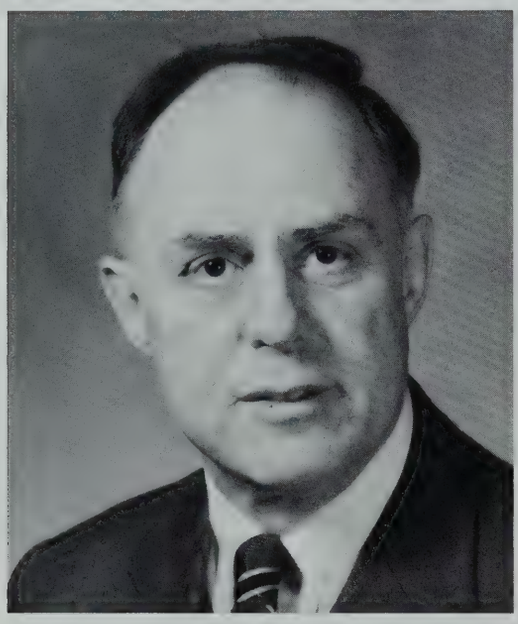
It seemed this year marked the exit for many of our NBH family. In addition to the numerous staff changes of people going on to new adventures, there were several retirements. Included with those pictured here were Mr. Abel Fidalgo, a longtime member of the Science Department, Mrs. Sylvia Amaral, a longtime friend to the students found in the Tan Office, and Mrs. Margaret Mello, an aide in our building and a longtime kidder to her charges.

Ms. E. Martins

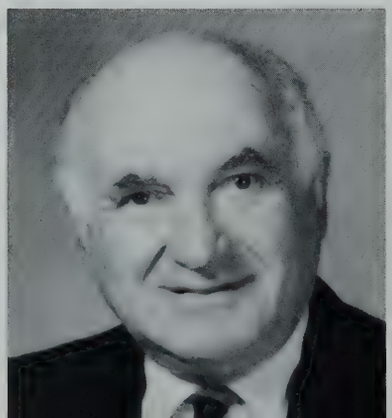
Ms. M. Shea

Mr. A. Roscow

Mr. L. Machado



Mr. A. Anderson



A special salute is given to Mr. Tabachnik for receiving the Phillip Bronspiegal Award for outstanding service throughout his many years.

THE BIG DAY ARRIVES

June 5, 1986 arrived a great deal sooner than anyone expected. There was just enough time for a moment of last minute fun (above) before seriousness set in with the long march to the field and Chris and Carol (left and below) delivered their inspiring words.

There are many emotions expressed at graduation. The first is usually celebration tingled with a little nervousness. That proud moment of getting the diploma is pictured here for our longtime friends and also for our new-found friends from Mexico and Venezuela.

The mood begins to change as time moves quickly through the ceremony and we begin to realize this is it! Soon we will all be moving in different directions to new lives.

The sun goes down; the balloons go up and the smiles become tears. Family and friends share the closing moments together. This is the goal we all worked so hard to reach and it is met with joy and sadness. We hold on together for a little while longer before facing new futures. As we reflect back on our time together we smile at all the good times and we look forward to our reunions when we'll smile together again.
